UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, GLOVES—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

UNDERWEAR.

Another such Underwear stock nowhere in Wheeling. Entire north end of our Market street room solidly packed with Underwear for men, women and children. All the late improved styles. The "Rebus" front is the product of a factory girl, who will make a fortune out of her invention. It's a draw-string arrangement at the neck that does away with buttons. The "Rebus" shoulder is also a great improvement. We sell the ONEITA Combination Suits. At 31c each Ladies' Natural Wool Jersey Ribbed Vests and Pants—good enough to sell at 50c.

Hosiery. Our usual good stock, and this is unusually better than the average stocks carried hereabouts. Ladies' Wool Hose 25c to $1.00 a pair. Fleeced Hose from 12½c up. Seamless Fast Black Cotton Hose 10c pair up. Lisle Thread and Silk Hosiery made on improved looms. Various lines of out sizes. Stock of Hosiery for men and children equally varied.

Gloves. Try a pair of our new Kid Gloves at $1.75 pair. An absolute guarantee with each pair. Unquestionably superior to any gloves on the market to-day. Also complete new lines at 98c, $1.35 and $1.50.

MRS. HART'S SCHOOL.

Mrs. Hart's School will reopen next Monday.

A Boy Bitten by a Dog.

Yesterday morning a dog belonging to J. Korn, of North Wheeling, bit Carl Haberfeld on the forehead. The boy was also thrown down by the dog's unprovoked attack and a bad bump raised on the back of his head. He was carrying the INTELLIGENCER at the time for his older brother, who is disabled by vaccination. The boy's mother complained to the police, and the dog was ordered to be shot.

A Woman Deserted.

Early this week a young couple put up at the St. Charles hotel, registering as husband and wife and giving their residence as Pittsburgh. The next day the young woman gave birth to a child, and the man disappeared. The woman and babe were left helpless, but have been cared for by Landlord Kobrecht so far. It is said the man is a well known young barber, and the girl a member of a good family in East Wheeling.

In the Criminal Court.

In Judge Huges's court yesterday an order was entered for the release of John McGrane, who made affidavit that he could not pay a fine assessed against him. He had been in jail for some time in default of the fine. Fred Goldstrom and S. J. Carson plead guilty on two indictments each for running gaming places and were fined $5 and costs each, and each required besides to give $100 bond to observe the law for a year.

Josephine Boyd plead guilty to keeping a house of ill fame and was fined $20 and costs.

Bridgeport in Oildom.

Among the towns whose people have been successful in the oil business Bridgeport is worthy of note. To say nothing of the two or three companies that have operated and sold out very profitably in the past few months there are at present as many more that are bringing in their members handsome returns for their investments. Several members of the Eckelberry can already count their daily incomes more than $100. This company is operating in the Sistersville field on the Ohio side.

Another company that recently commenced to operate near the old Smith's Ferry field has developed what promises to be productive oil territory. They have already two good producing wells, and will drill others as rapidly as possible. They have five hundred acres of leases, and the location of their present wells makes nearly all the property look good for production.

Nearly every person in the town who has tried his luck after the grease has come out on top.

A Good Strike.

The principal feature of the last twenty-four hours' development in this field was the new gusher of the Philadelphia company on the Dye-Williamson farm, three-fourths of a mile north of Middle Island. The well was drilled two feet in the Big Injan sand and started its flow at 100 barrels per day.

It will be drilled deeper with the expectation of a greater flow. The excitement on Big Buffalo near the well is at a high pitch. —Sistersville Review.

THE SMALLPOX SITUATION.

The Number of Cases Increases Steadily.

One Patient Dies.

Business seems to have about resumed its normal conditions in Wheeling, after having been pretty seriously depressed by the unreasonable smallpox scare. One new case of this disease was suspected on Thursday and finally diagnosed as smallpox yesterday. The patient is Everett Froust, who was an inmate of the house in Alley 18 where a case has existed. He will be taken to the smallpox hospital this morning.

A sad death from the disease occurred at the hospital last evening about 7 o'clock. George Rickett, a cigar maker, was the victim. He was a bright young fellow, well liked and well connected. Dr. Jopson received a telegram from his brother, clerk of the courts at Boulder, Mont., asking after his condition Thursday evening. He has another brother in the west and one in Wheeling. His condition was not considered serious until yesterday.

Henry Kitson will be released, cured, to-day. Messrs. Gilligan and Bach are beyond the danger point and will be out of quarantine not later than tomorrow. At present there are only ten patients under the health officer's care who are sick enough to be still taking medicine. The weather continues favorable and the outlook is brighter every day.

Officer Eddy, of the police force, who was one of the severest sufferers from the disease, is in a fair way to recovery. He was able to sit up yesterday.

Lieutenant Ingram is one of the victims of vaccination. He has been nearly laid up for the past two days.

THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS.

Again Allows Mr. Cogan $250—this time Against the City.

Last evening the council committee on claims again approved the claim of Mr. Cogan, at 60 Alley 23. In making a new grade there the city left his house down in a hole, to the damage of his property and to the danger of passersby. Once before a committee recommended that he be allowed $250, but the last council shied the whole matter. Mr. J. R. Handlan, Solicitor Boyce and Councilman Irwin stated the facts last night, and the committee unanimously voted to recommend to council that he be paid $250.

The case of Mr. Rogers, of Bethesda, O., who has sued the city for $5,000 damages received, as he alleges, by careless work on street improvements, was explained and the solicitor directed to look up the evidence.

Mr. Boyce reported that there were several damage suits pending against the city, one by Mr. Haberfeld for $1,500, one by John McGannon for $2,500, and two by the Carrys, of the South Side. None of them are thought to be just claims, all having been investigated by this committee or the former one and turned down. Three suits growing out of the Terminal Company's improvements, in which damages were claimed from the city, were dismissed at the present term of the circuit court.

ZIMMERMAN IN THE PEN.

A Famous Old Horse Thief Landed There Yesterday.

Sheriff Shaw, of Preston county, who was seriously wounded about five months ago in an attempt to capture some Pennsylvania horse thieves, brought up to Moundsville Peter Zimmerman, a professional horse thief, who operated in Preston county.

Before Zimmerman could be caught for that crime he was picked up for a job in Pennsylvania and sent to the penitentiary for three years. As soon as that sentence ended he was brought to Preston county, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Zimmerman is seventy-two years of age, and about forty years of his life has been spent in prison. He is a cheerful old rascal, and seems to steal horses because he cannot help it.

Sheriff Shaw still has in him the bullet put there by the Pennsylvania horse thief, and physicians think it unwise at this time to try to remove it. The friends of the plucky sheriff wish him early restoration to complete health.

THE "BUFFET" CLOSED UP.

An Attachment for Rent Followed by a Receivership.

Late night before last the Buffet saloon, at the corner of Alley Band Alley 9, one of the finest fitted places of the kind, was closed by Constable St. Myers on a distress warrant for rent due. It has recently been run by James Larkin, a popular man, who said his business was prosperous until the disaster at the Hutchison building, on Main street which, by closing Alley 9, cut off much of his business.

Yesterday in the circuit court Judge Paul entered an order in the case of William Lipphardt, Plaintiff Zane, trustee, and others, vs. Charles S. Horsford, trustee, and others, returning the business matters of the Buffet to George H. E. Glick, trustee, to ascertain the debts, the liens and their priority, etc. John B. Wilson was appointed receiver to look after the concern in the meantime. The Buffet has had a checkered career since it was opened a few years ago.

THE EYES.

It has been demonstrated that there is more eye and head relief from the definite refraction and the use of glasses not properly adjusted than from all other causes, and that it is absolutely necessary to have the eyes examined and scientifically examined and fitted with glasses to secure relief and prevent injury.

Those needing spectacles, or their eyes sore and inflamed, when reading or sewing can consult and have their eyes examined for glasses without charge by Prof. Scott, the Scientific Optician, 1110 Main street, next door to Snook & Co.
